CeCe McDonald and Reina Gossett

On Prisons, Representation, and Trans Politics at the Edges of Institutionalization

Wednesday, May 18
7-9pm, HUB 302 South

A conversation on Black trans politics, representation, and collective organizing against the prison industrial complex

Open to the campus and community.
CeCe McDonald and Reina Gossett

On Prisons, Representation, and Trans Politics at the Edges of Institutionalization

Wednesday, May 18
7-9pm, HUB 302 South

A participatory, roundtable symposium moderated by Eric Stanley, assistant professor of Gender and Sexuality Studies at UCR

Join activists CeCe McDonald and Reina Gossett for a discussion on Black trans politics, representation, and collective organizing against the prison industrial complex. Find out how you can join and advance the conversation.

BOOK SIGNING: Following the panel, CeCe and Reina will sign copies of the new edition of Captive Genders.

Open to the campus and community.

Co-sponsored by:
Gender and Sexuality Studies, Media and Cultural Studies, Ethnic Studies, Center for Ideas and Society, LGBT Studies Minor, Office of Diversity, Excellence and Equity, Comparative Literature and Foreign Languages, LGBT Resource Center, Asterisk*, and the Women’s Resource Center.