Thrivers + Survivors

A welcoming space where sexual assault survivors can meet and support each other. Meetings are held bi-weekly and features guest speakers and self-expression through art activities. On- and off-campus resources are also available.

CONTACT: Romanie Arterberry at (951) 827-3338 for meeting day, time and location.

“Believe in your strength and your capacity to heal. While the process of healing may take time and may be difficult, you will find ways to reclaim the strong and capable parts of yourself.”
