College Information Sessions

College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences
The College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences (CHASS) is unique among its peers in that it combines the arts, humanities and social sciences into one college. This structure gives students and faculty the opportunity to explore across a broad range of disciplines and examine diverse dimensions of social and historical life and human meaning. This session gives prospective transfer students an opportunity to learn more about CHASS academic programs and services.

MSE 104

College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences
The College of Natural and Agricultural Sciences (CNAS) is unique among land-grant universities for combining life sciences, physical sciences, mathematical sciences and agricultural sciences in one college. The result is a vibrant culture that encourages interdisciplinary coursework and undergraduate research. Learn more about “the CNAS advantage” during this presentation.

MSE 116

School of Business
The UCR School of Business houses Southern California’s oldest and most comprehensive UC business administration program. This session summarizes the program and outlines how the School of Business helps transfer students succeed. Come to this session to learn more about obtaining a UCR business degree.

Watkins 1000

Marlan and Rosemary Bourns College of Engineering
The Marlan and Rosemary Bourns College of Engineering (BCOE) teaches students to meet the challenges and solve the problems of our increasingly technological society. This session gives an overview of what it means to be an engineer and why BCOE is the place to be.

Watkins 1101

Graduate School of Education
The Graduate School of Education (GSOE) offers an exciting undergraduate major, Education, Society, and Human Development. The major lets undergraduate students study, research and serve the U.S. educational system alongside world-class faculty. Explore how education is an important tool to transform ourselves, our communities and our society at this presentation.

MSE 113

School of Public Policy
The School of Public Policy (SPP) is distinctive in its focus on addressing the big policy challenges confronting communities in our region and around the world. UCR is currently the only UC campus to offer a public policy major. SPP’s undergraduate public policy program provides students with the research, analytical and management skills needed for careers in public service as well as not-for-profit and for-profit organizations.
